INTEGRATE THE EXPERTISE

L3 Technologies provides integrated solutions that maximize mission performance while maintaining the highest level of reliability for military vessels worldwide.

Whether the need is for a small component or a fully integrated C5ISR system, L3 delivers the solutions needed for mission-critical operations. Our advanced in-house technology and experience allows us to provide turnkey solutions that are fully integrated, interoperable and within budget. L3 has the proven experience to adapt commercial marine technology to meet the U.S. Navy's ruggedized requirements, combining innovation, dependability, and affordability. From pioneering Mil-Spec qualified systems, to best-in-class commercial solutions, L3 provides it all.

From maritime automation and control, navigation, communications, power distribution and conditioning, to undersea warfare systems and more; L3 has the resources, people and advancements in technology to meet your evolving needs.
